

Foundation Stage Cornerstones Curriculum Overview - Engage, develop, innovate, express!

ILP Focus All Prime Areas Frozen Planet Communication 30-50m and Language Questions why things happen and gives explanations Builds up vocabulary that reflects the breadth of their experiences 40-60m Extends vocabulary, especially by grouping and naming, exploring the meaning and sounds of new words. Physical 40-60m Development Shows increasing control over an object in pushing, patting, throwing, catching or kicking it. Shows a preference for a dominant hand. The children will Begins to form recognisable letters. explore winter, snow Personal, Social 40-60m and ice. We will use the Confident to speak to others about own needs, wants, interests and opinions. local environment to and Emotional investigate the changing Development Can describe self in positive terms and talk about abilities. weather and begin to Literacy 30-50m 40-60m make links with Knows information can be relayed in the form of Can segment the sounds in simple words and blend them together and temperature and ice. knows which letters represent some of them They will find out about Listens to stories with increasing attention and Begins to read simple sentences environments and recall. Knows that information can be retrieved from books and computers animals in frozen lands. Suggests how stories might end. learning about Penguins, Maths 30-50m 40-60m Polar Bears and a range Counts objects to 10, and beginning to count beyond 10 Shows an interest in representing quantities of other animals. Realises not only objects, but anything can be counted, In practical activities and discussion, beginning to use the We will learn some facts including steps, claps and jumps. vocabulary involved in adding and subtracting. about these animals and Beginning to use mathematical language to describe 2D Orders two or three items by length or height. begin to understand that and 3D shapes. Says the number that is one less than a given number. we can find information Understanding 30-50m in books and on the the World Comments and asks questions about aspects of their familiar world such as the place where they live or the natural world internet. We will think around them. about how to keep Talk about why things happen and how things work. ourselves safe and warm Knows that information can be retrieved from computers. in winter. Shows an interest in different ways of life 40-60m Looks closely at similarities, differences, patterns and change. Completes a simple program on a computer. 30-50mExpressive Arts 40-60m and Design. Create simple representations of events, people and Uses available resources to create props to support role-play. Captures experiences and responses with a range of media, objects.

such as music, dance and paint and other materials or words.