

We will be looking at/Key Vocabulary:

Arctic - the most northern point of the earth.

Antarctic – the most southern point of the earth.

Temperature - how hot or cold something is.

Thermometer- an instrument to measure temperature.

Frozen - when liquids become solids in cold temperatures.

Winter – the coldest season of the year.

Robert Falcon Scott

As the leader of two major expeditions to Antarctica, Robert Falcon Scott is credited with discovering that Antarctica is a continent.

St Andrew's C of E (VA) Infant School

Winter Wonderland

Animals we will learn about:

People and Communities:

We will use books and the internet to find out.....

About the signs of winter and how the changes we see.

If anyone lives in the Arctic and Antarctica?

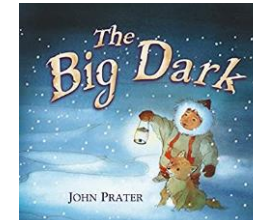

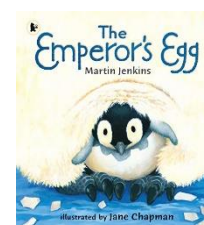

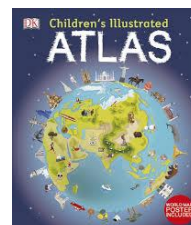

What people eat and how they would live and keep warm?

What is happening to the North and South Pole?

We will use non-fiction books, the internet and news clips to find out what is happening to our ice caps and why they are melting. We will talk about ways to help the planet

We will think about how this will affect the environment and the animals that live there.

Books we will be looking at:

Lost and Found will be our main Literacy text. We will also be looking at a range of non-fiction books throughout the topic.

Understanding the World:

We will be exploring and finding out how ice is made and disappears.

What melting is and how it happens.

What snowflakes look like.

What a map is and how a key is used.